

Bumbles B McBumbles

A sketch comedy idea

A comedy sketch idea parodying the caricature-ish characters one sometimes finds in '30s comedies. Bumbles B McBumbles is on trial for murder. His unlikely defense is that all his life he has been a bumbling idiot wreaking havoc wherever he goes inadvertently. The level, as well as the specific details, of the death and destruction Bumbles is described in the courtroom as leaving in his path sounds absurd.

During the course of the trial, Bumbles manages to kill off nearly every single person in the courtroom, one by one, inadvertently, in somewhat absurd happenstances, as usual.
